Learning and Teaching Fair
2020

Dear colleagues,

We cordially invite you to a virtual exhibition of the Learning and Teaching Fair being organized by the Educational Development and Technology Unit (LET). The Fair showcases ETH professors and lecturers and their teaching. It provides a platform for them to present interesting current ETH teaching projects and approaches and is an opportunity for informal discussion among project leaders, members of the Teaching Commission, Educational Developers from the departments, students, the Rector and – above all – ETH teaching staff, who are interested in teaching.

The Learning and Teaching Fair will take place on Thursday, 5th November 2020, 16.30 visit of the virtual Fair, 17.00 online discussion (Zoom-room).

The URL of the virtual Fair will be published on the event website in due course.

We look forward to seeing you there!

Yours sincerely,

Prof. Dr. Sarah M. Springman
