

Social Housing as past, present and future sites of publicness

Friday August 28th from 17.30-18.30 CET

CHAired BY: Dr. Svava Riesto, University of Copenhagen and Dr. Marie Glaser, ETH Zürich

Program:

Postwar Social Housing as an emergent Form of Heritage- New Approaches and Concepts

» Dr. Svava Riesto, Dr. Marie Glaser, University of Copenhagen, ETH Zürich

The making of publicness: 'House biographies' as a research approach to explore lived heritage in postwar high-rise estates

» Dr. Eveline Althaus, Mrs. Liv Christensen, Dr. Marie Glaser, ETH Zürich

Between private and public: Italian postwar middle-class housing as a legacy and resource

» Dr. Svava Riesto, Dr. Gaia Caramellino, University of Copenhagen, Politecnico di Milano

Two regimes of publicness: Affective heritage in the refurbishment of Le Lignon, Geneva

» Dr. Irina Davidovici, ETH

Minority-modes of Imagining: Activating Archival Documents for Social Housing Futures

» Dr. Heidi Svenningsen Kajita, University of Copenhagen, Newcastle University

Researching publicness in social housing through architecture exhibitions

» Dr. Anne Tietjen, University of Copenhagen

Discussant - Henriette Steiner

» Dr. Svava Riesto, Dr. Henriette Steiner, University of Copenhagen

Designing for showcasing publicness

» Prof. Ellen Braae, University of Cope

Official online program: <https://achs2020london.com/programme/>