

D-BAUG Urban Research Seminar

November 22nd, 2024, 2.30 - 6.00 pm, HIL H 35.1

The Urban Research Seminar aims to build a bottom-up and transdisciplinary network of early career researchers at D-BAUG and beyond. Exploring the variety of perspectives, concepts and methods of urban research, the seminar hosts short talks and discussions, followed by an apéro.

Time	Presenter	Title	Department
2.30 pm	Elias Knecht	The Art of Connecting: The Reuse of the Huber Pavilions	D-BAUG, IBI, CEA
3.00 pm	Andreas Moser	Knowledge co-production of rural urbanization drivers for effective monitoring	D-BAUG, IRL, PLUS
3.30 pm	Lawrence Tseng Ting-Hsiang	Understanding Post-Earthquake Residential Mobility through Human Capabilities	SEC, FRS (Future Resilience Systems)
Break
4.30 pm	Jay Zheng Chang	The Impact of Ending Poverty Alleviation Programs on Low-Income Households: Evidence from the Former Central Soviet Area in Southern Jiangxi, China	ISTP
5.00 pm	Noëlle Klein	Applicability and practitioner use of decision-support tools for biodiversity and ecosystem services in spatial planning	D-BAUG, IRL, PLUS
5.30 pm	Anna Reifer	METiS: Multiagent Estimation of Time-Use and Scheduling - A Model to Generate Activity Schedules for Agent-Based Travel Demand Models	D-BAUG, IVT, TMP
Apéro

Project Team

Prof. Dr. David Kaufmann, kadavid@ethz.ch, Spatial Planning and Urban Policy (SPUR)

Bruna Rohling, brohling@ethz.ch, Spatial Planning and Urban Policy (SPUR)

Michal Switalski, michals@ethz.ch, Planning of Landscape and Urban Systems (PLUS)