

What is PACE?

Postdoctoral Association for Career development and Continuing Education

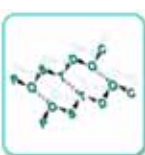

Since its inception in 2005, activities of PACE at IBC are dedicated

- ^ to develop a sense of community
- ^ to broaden scientific horizons
- ^ to assist in career development

by stimulating interactions between young scientists within and beyond the institute

Who we are

- ^ All Postdocs at IBC
- ^ We work in 10 different labs
- ^ About 1/3 women and 2/3 men
- ^ A diverse community from all over the world with varied interests and experiences

Connecting People

- ^ Social events to welcome new postdocs
- ^ Lunch following our weekly institute seminar
- ^ PACE webpage: present/past members, calendar of events, publications. Online soon!
<http://www.bc.biol.ethz.ch/pace/index>

Research Exchange

- ^ Seminar series with junior/senior PIs
- ^ Postdoc retreats
- ^ Annual IBC-IMSB Postdoc day - Next: Oct 6th, 2014!

Postdoc to PI transition

- ^ Postdoc to PI transition event: 5 group leaders shared their diverse experiences. Organized with AMB (Please visit AMB poster)
- ^ Round table discussions with senior and junior PIs/invited speakers

Continuing Education

- ^ Teaching block and lab courses
- ^ Mentoring masters and PhD students
- ^ Developing soft skills by being active with PACE

- Will you soon become a Postdoc?
- Would you like to learn from our experiences?

- Are you interested in our activities?
- Would you like to fund our events?

pace@bc.biol.ethz.ch