

LELAM-TVET4INCOME - An r4d Research Project NEWSLETTER – November 2020

The LELAM-TVET4 INCOME research project is part of the Swiss Programme for Research on Global Issues for Development (r4d). It aims to understand under what conditions TVET (Technical Vocational Education and Training) can improve the income of the youth in Benin, Chile, Costa Rica and Nepal.

PAST EVENTS

11&12 September 2019: The International Conference on TVET for Employment, Income, and Job Quality took place in Kathmandu, Nepal. The conference was organized by the LELAM project partners from the Kathmandu School of Education (KUSOED), Kathmandu University.

National Seminar on TVET Reform in Nepal on Feb. 13, 2020. The National seminar 'Technical and vocational education and training: Reform initiatives and future strategies' was jointly organized by the Ministry of Education, Science and Technology and the LELAM-TVET4Income partner institution Kathmandu University School of Education (KUSOED).

11-13 March 2020: Mid Term report r4d projects in Spiez, Switzerland. LELAM project partners presented the project scope and advances to the Swiss National Foundation evaluators. In September, we received the news that the project will be funded for a further 3 years.

On August 19, the 2020 CEMETS Institute kicked off with over hundred participants from all around the world. This is the first Semi-Virtual version of the successful CEMETS institutes, and includes teams from Benin, Bosnia and Herzegovina, Chile, Colorado, Costa Rica, Cuba, Indiana, Nepal, New York City, a team of US Funders, and Washington DC. We are looking forward to the next five months of virtual content with this year's participants.

November 17, 2020: Conference in Costa Rica “Reflexiones en torno al sistema de la Educación y Formación Técnico Profesional de Costa Rica”. Dr. Ursula Renold was the main speaker of the conference.
