

CIS Colloquium

Fall 2021

Thursdays, 12.30 - 14.00, University of Zurich, IPZ E 022 as well as on Zoom

September 23	Aina Gallego	Institut Barcelona d'Estudis Internacionals
	The Historical Origins of the Gender Gap in Political Representation and How Political Entrepreneurs Can Help Close It
September 30*	Jessica Di Salvatore	University of Warwick
	Donors for Tax Compliance: Evidence from Africa
October 7	Pieter de Wilde	Norwegian University of Science and Technology
	Feeling Represented: A New Approach to Measure How Citizens Feel Represented Through Representative Claims
October 14	Christian Breunig	University of Konstanz
	Perceptions of Inequality and Redistribution among Legislators
October 21	Raphaël Parchet	Università della Svizzera italiana
	Who Bears the Burden of Local Taxes
October 28*	Simone Dietrich	University of Geneva
	States, Markets, and Foreign Aid
November 4	Pauliina Patana	Harvard Kennedy School
	Residential Constraints and the Political Geography of the Populist Radical Right
November 11*	Nick Vivyan	Durham University
	The Emergence of Coherent Political Choices from Incomplete Issue Preferences
November 18	Raymond Duch	University of Oxford
	Government Audits of Municipal Corruption and Belief Updating: Experimental Evidence
November 25*	Theresa Kuhn	University of Amsterdam
	Party Cues and Public Support for Eurobonds: A Survey Experiment in Five Countries
December 2	Talk has been cancelled
December 9*	Kristina Bakkær Simonsen	Aarhus University
	Moralizing Immigration: The Use of Moral Rhetoric in Political Texts Across Time, Space, and Political Parties
December 16*	Gabriele Spilker	University of Salzburg
	Reporting on Climate-Change Action: Paris Agreement, Fridays for Future and the Framing in Public News Worldwide

*Talk only on Zoom