

CIS Colloquium

Fall 2024

Thursdays, 12.30 - 14.00, UZH, Affolternstrasse 56, AFL E 003

September 19	Simon Niemeyer	University of Canberra
	Deliberative Reason and Democratic Capacity Building: A Framework for National Analysis
September 26	Vicente Valentim	IE University, School of Politics, Economics and Global Affairs, Madrid
	The Normalisation of the Radical Right: A Norms Theory of Political Supply and Demand
October 3	Jan Rovny	Science Po, Paris
	Ethnic Minorities, Political Competition, and Democracy: Circumstantial Liberals
October 10	Rachel Bernhard	Nuffield College, University of Oxford
	From Maid to Mayor? Racialized Career Prestige Shapes Who Runs for Office
October 17	Grace Ballor	Bocconi University
	Business and the Single European Market
October 31	Abbey Steele	University of Amsterdam
	Civilian Responses to Competitive State-Building in Colombia's Periphery
November 7	David Carter	Washington University in St. Louis
	Border Fortification and Trust in Political Institutions
November 14	Lukas Lehner	University of Edinburgh
	Employing the Unemployed Workers of Marienthal: Evaluation of a Guaranteed Job Program and Comparison of Stated and Revealed Preferences
November 21	Martin Larsen	Aarhus University
	City Limits: How Citizen Opposition to Urban Development Become Concentrated in Expensive Housing Markets
November 28	Anita Manatschal	University of Neuchâtel
	Which "Demos" Has a Say?
December 12	Tarik Abou-Chadi	Nuffield College, University of Oxford
	Identity Appeals in Party Competition	