

CIS Colloquium

Spring 2024

Thursdays, 12.30 - 14.00, ETH, CLA Building, Tannenstrasse 3, Room J 1

February 22	Claes de Vreese	University of Amsterdam
	Challenges of AI for Democracy
February 29	Adam Scharpf	University of Copenhagen
	Making Career in Dictatorship: The Secret Logic Behind Coups and Repression
March 14	Helen Milner	Princeton University
	Globalization and the Rise of the Populist Far Right in Europe
March 21	Isabel Perera	Cornell University / European University Institute
	The Welfare Workforce: The Political Logic of Mental Health Care
March 28	Orit Kedar	Hebrew University of Jerusalem
	Geographic Representation
April 11	Asya Magazinnik	Hertie School, Berlin
	The Supply Side Politics of Climate Change Mitigation
April 18	Emiliano Grossman	Science Po Paris
	Social Media at the Polls, Understanding the Dynamics of Attention to Election Candidates on Social Media in France
April 25	Simon Hix	European University Institute
	The Dance of European Integration: How Ideology and Policy Shape Support for the EU
May 2	James Fishkin	Stanford University
	The World in One Room: Using an Automated Moderator for the First (Near) Global Deliberative Poll
May 16	Gemma Dipoppa	Brown University
	No Smoke Without a Fire: Bureaucratic Incentives, Crop Burning, and Pollution in South Asia
May 23	Corinna Jentzsch	Leiden University
	Denying the Threat: Government Responses to Emerging Rebellion: Evidence from Mozambique	