

XV Transatlantic Workshop on the Economics of Crime

Call for Papers

ETH Zurich
October 4-5, 2024

This 15th workshop will continue the sequence of Economics of Crime workshops in Paris (2009), Bonn (2010), Torino (2011), Rotterdam (2012), Frankfurt (2013), Milan (2014), London (2015), Stockholm (2016), Philadelphia (2017), Paris (2018), Amsterdam (2019), Gothenburg (2021), Milan (2022), and Ann Arbor (2023).

This edition will be held in person at the ETH Zurich (Switzerland) on October 4-5, 2024.

We aim to bring together researchers from both sides of the Atlantic to present and discuss their work, allowing for an in-depth interaction between those working on the empirical and theoretical analysis of crime and illegal behavior.

The workshop will consist of 12-15 contributed papers and two keynote lectures:

Randi Hjalmarsson (University of Gothenburg) and Sharad Goel (Harvard Kennedy School)

This year's theme will focus on the integration and implications of AI/ML in the economics and management of crime and justice. Other suggested topics include:

- Racial bias in the justice system
- Social prevention of crime and violence
- Early childhood interventions
- Law enforcement & judicial decisions
- Re-entry and rehabilitation interventions
- Guns/weapons/violence and crime
- Social interactions, networks, and crime
- Crime and the labor markets

The workshop, sponsored by ETH and SNSF, offers hotel stays and meals for presenters. Limited travel expense funding (economy class) is available, with preference given to junior scholars. Presenters who are able to self-fund travel are greatly appreciated. Please submit your papers using this form by May 3rd, 2024. Notification for accepted papers will be sent by mid-June 2024. For further information, contact us at twec2024eth@gmail.com.

The 2024 scientific committee consists of Elliott Ash (ETH), Anna Bindler (U Cologne), Sergio Galletta (ETH), Mike Mueller-Smith (U Michigan), Olivier Marie (EUR), Aurelie Ouss (UPenn), and Emily Owens (UC, Irvine).
