

Newsletter

June 2021

As the semester is drawing to a close, we have one final CSNOW event to share! There are also two interesting events beyond D-INFK that we invite you to participate in, and an interesting Master's thesis to support teaching young girls about computer science.

The CSNOW team wishes you good luck with the final weeks and any exams you may have!

-Joel from CSNOW

Professor talk + "Ask Me Anything"

with Valentina Boeva

Following the session with Shweta Shinde, we have another talk by one of the department's female professors! Valentina will tell us a bit about her research area and give everyone the chance to ask her questions.

- Thursday, June 3
- 🕒 13:00 - 13:30
- Zoom
- 🗉👤 All department members

Register

External Events

Overcoming Bias in Academia

The D-ITET Diversity Team (D+ITET) will be hosting a panel discussion titled "Overcoming Bias in Academia" with three panelists. The goal of this discussion is to identify existing issues in academia and to raise awareness for stereotypes and discrimination at Swiss Universities. Further, they will discuss how to create strategies for empathy and actionable plans to transform institutional culture.

- Wednesday, May 26
- 🕒 16:00 - 17:00
- Zoom

More details and registration

EPFL

WIKIMEDIA CH ETH zürich

Thursday
3 June
2021
1 pm - 6 pm

Wikipedia
Diversithon
Editathon on Diversity

Collaborative writing for new and experienced users.
Bring more diversity on Wikipedia.
Join in! → go.epfl.ch/wikieditathon

Editathon on Diversity

Did you know that only 18% of biographies on Wikipedia are about women and that almost 90% of editors are male?

In cooperation with ETH Zurich's Office for Equal Opportunities and Diversity and Wikimedia CH, the École polytechnique fédérale de Lausanne (EPFL) is organising an Editathon dedicated to the celebration of diversity on Wikipedia.

- Thursday, June 3
- 🕒 13:00 - 18:00
- Online

Please join and help us to bring more diversity to Wikipedia!

Sign up

Jobs & Opportunities

Master's thesis on "Gender Equality in Computer Science: Video Games as Preparation for Future Learning"

Design, implement, and evaluate game-based activities to help young girls learn about main computer science concepts. This thesis is a collaboration between the ETH Game Technology Center, the Professorship for Learning Sciences and Higher Education of ETH, as well as Girls Can Code (GCC), an initiative teaching computer science to young girls.

More details

Lab Instructor for Swiss Olympiad in Informatics

Ready to inspire, motivate and empower girls into Tech?

Girls Can Code team is looking for a motivated German & French speaking student('s) to teach our Swiss Olympiad in Informatics Prep Lab. You will be trained by team members to teach tech skills in a fun and engaging way to girls between the age 13-18. Female and male applicants are all welcome!

More details

This is a monthly newsletter sent out to all female students at D-INFK.
You can change your preferences or unsubscribe here.