

Extended sidewalks create inviting and safe pedestrian spaces

Public transit has the right of way over cyclists

Red lanes: Right of way for cyclists

Upgraded pedestrian spaces with greenery to combat heat

Buffer zones separate cyclists from cars

Major bus route

Inbetween spaces are planted with greenery

Motorized traffic lanes are reduced, but cars and other motorized vehicles can still access every place